EARL AND DONNA DAYTON

Earl and Donna Dayton were born and raised within a few blocks of one another. They belonged to the same ward and started the first grade of elementary school together. They both came of good, early families, and liked the same types of hobbies.

Most of the children in town loved to get away to the surrounding mountains in their free time, but these two loved dancing and other activities that kept them close to town.

Earl's parents were Forrest and Nellie Giles Dayton, he was born in 1930 in Heber. He had older sisters, Helen, Dorothy, a brother Bert, and another sister, Merle and sometime later Earl was born. The entire family was good at music, singing and presenting skits. They seemed to be natural born entertainers and were very popular in all the wards of the county. They were a close-knit family and enjoyed being with people. Merle and Earl still sing duets and are generous with their talents.

Donna was a daughter of Hyrum and Mary Hicken Moulton. She was a good student all through her schooling and was a cheerleader at Wasatch High. She and Earl both played the clarinet in the school bands, they were both excellent dancers and dated for the church and school dances. She learned to be a good seamstress and sewed for her family as they came along. She loves her sewing, crocheting tap dancing and has a talent for creating finger exercises for youngsters to use.

the floor may be stored upstairs, so ask if you don't see it.

The biggest sellers are in the plumbing, electrical, and tool fields, but you'll find keys and even Adidas tennis shoes. For children who accompany dad, there are candy bars or jerky.

There are so many things to look at and touch. It's a real pleasure palace for the handyman, the craftsman, the worker, the constructor. It is a marvel that there are so many things there - and they are all for sale!
